MASTER'S IN INTERNATIONAL SECURITY

Dates: From September 2019 to September 2020

Duration: 12 months, full-time

Credits: 60 ECTS

Language: English

Applications: 1 July 2019

The Master's in International Security is a one-year, interdisciplinary programme intended to educate future professionals in the area of peace and war studies. It focuses on providing students with a comprehensive set of analytical skills, robust training in research methods, and a thorough understanding of international conflicts in the 21st century whilst simultaneously demonstrating how they are embedded within the broader discipline of political science and international relations.

This advanced full-time programme, taught in English, is tailored for individuals considering a high-level career in government, the private industry, international institutions or non-governmental organisations, as well as those wishing to pursue an academic career.

MASTER'S IN INTERNATIONAL SECURITY

The Master's degree is fully accredited and is jointly awarded by three renowned Barcelona universities: the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, the Universitat de Barcelona, and the Universitat Pompeu Fabra.

The Master's syllabus offers an innovative structure, totalling 60 ECTS credits. It combines a number of core subjects providing students with a solid background in theory and research methods and a wide range of electives reflecting the students' diverse interests. The Master's in International Security programme includes three different types of courses and a final research project:

- ▶ Core courses (22 ECTS): Theories of International Security; Issues, Actors and Policy in International Security; Research Methods in International Security; Research Seminar in International Security.
- ▶ International Security elective courses: A minimum of 12 ECTS and a maximum of 28 ECTS.
- ▶ Other electives: Up to 16 ECTS in lieu of International Security elective courses.
- ▶ Final Research Project (10 ECTS).

BARCELONA

Studying at IBEI gives you an opportunity to spend a year in one of the most attractive and cosmopolitan European cities, ranked among the top cities in terms of culture and quality of life. Its Mediterranean climate, with mild winters and warm summers, and a comparatively low cost of living are combined with a stimulating academic environment to offer an exceptional educational experience. Barcelona hosts one of Europe's most important academic communities: eight universities and a network of research centres and scientific parks that create a thriving environment for study and research.
