MASTER'S IN INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

- Dates: From September 2018 to September 2019
- Duration: 12 months, full-time
24 months, part-time
- Credits: 60 ECTS
- Language: English track or Spanish-English bilingual track
- Applications: 1 July 2018 (non-EU applicants)
15 July 2018 (EU applicants)

The Master's in International Relations programme provides a wide range of courses in international relations, comparative politics and international political economy.

Specific issues addressed include the challenges of governance on an international scale, the management of peace and security in societies in conflict, regional area studies, terrorism and security, among many others.

Building on the knowledge acquired in the first semester, in the second semester students take a pathway speciality allowing them to tailor their education according to their individual interests within the subfields of international relations.

MASTER'S IN INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

The Master's degree is fully accredited and is jointly awarded by three renowned Barcelona universities: the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, the Universitat de Barcelona and the Universitat Pompeu Fabra.

The degree can be studied bilingually (English-Spanish) or exclusively in English, as well as either full-time (1 year) or part-time (2 years). The Master's syllabus offers an innovative structure, totalling 60 ECTS credits. It is made up of a combination of core subjects courses and a wide range of electives that reflect the students' individual interests:

- ▶ Compulsory courses: International Relations Theory, International Trade and Economy, Comparative Politics and Democratization, and Advanced Social Research.
- ▶ Pathway core courses: Students are required to select a course according to the chosen pathway.
- ▶ Elective courses: A broad choice of electives offering students the possibility to specialize by subject or by geographical area.
- ▶ Final Research Project.

BARCELONA

Studying at IBEI allows you to spend a year in one of the most attractive and cosmopolitan European cities. Barcelona is ranked as one of the top cities in terms of culture and quality of life. Its Mediterranean climate, with mild winters and warm summers, and a comparatively low cost of living are combined with a stimulating academic environment to offer an exceptional educational experience. The city hosts one of Europe's most important academic communities: eight universities and a network of research centres and scientific parks provide a thriving environment for study and research.

IBEI

The INSTITUT BARCELONA D'ESTUDIS INTERNACIONALS (IBEI) was established in 2004 as a postgraduate research and teaching institute. The Institute is an associate member of APSIA, the Association of Professional Schools of International Affairs.

IBEI is a centre of academic excellence specialising in the field of international studies. It combines outstanding research with high-quality teaching and student-oriented services.

5 REASONS TO CHOOSE IBEI

- ▶ Join a high-quality Master's degree which combines academic rigour with a practical approach to the important problems in international affairs.
- ▶ Choose between the bilingual (Spanish & English) and the English-only option.
- ▶ Be part of IBEI's diverse student community coming from over 40 countries all over the world.
- ▶ Receive individualized attention from our highly qualified international faculty thanks to the low staff-student ratio.
