The Fundación Banco Sabadell and IBEI offer two grants covering approximately 50% (€5,500) of the tuition fees of the master’s programmes offered by the Institut Barcelona d’Estudis Internacionals (IBEI) for the academic year 2020-2021.

The Fundación Banco Sabadell (Banco Sabadell Foundation) was constituted as a private foundation in 1994 for the purposes of stimulating intelligence and promoting knowledge and culture. The Foundation’s objective is to promote activities of dissemination, training and research in the educational, scientific and cultural fields, as well as to encourage and support young talent.

Applicants for one of these grants must comply with the following requirements:

- Be admitted or pre-admitted to any of IBEI’s master’s programmes
- Demonstrate an excellent academic record
- The professional experience of the applicant will be taken into account

Selection criteria:

- Grants are awarded on the basis of academic and professional excellence.
- The final decision is made by the IBEI Admissions Committee. The decision cannot be appealed.
- The Admissions Committee will not consider incomplete applications.

To be considered for this grant, applicants will have to complete the application form for the IBEI master’s programme of their choice on the IBEI website, stating that they wish to be considered for this grant, and upload the following required documents by 1 July 2020:

- Academic transcript(s)
- Undergraduate degree
- Short up-to-date curriculum vitae
- Motivation letter
- Proof of proficiency in English
- Two reference letters
- Copy of identity card or passport

In case of any queries, applicants can contact the IBEI Admissions Office at admissions@ibei.org for more information.

Notification of the applicants

The Admissions Committee offers both grants as part of the admissions process, as long as the applications for the grant have been submitted by 1 July 2020. The decision of the Admissions Committee will be notified by email.
Personal data treatment

Student data will be processed by IBEI with the main purpose of carrying out administrative tasks deriving from the provision of educational services, as well as for academic and administrative purposes and, if authorised, to send communications about IBEI’s different activities, once the student finishes the master programme.

The legal basis for the aforementioned processing will be contractual compliance regarding the provision of the requested services, a legitimate interest in the management of internal processes regarding academic and administrative management and the consent granted in relation to the sending of communications, until stated otherwise.

Data will be processed during the legally established periods and as long as the processing is required for the purposes mentioned above. In the case of sending communications, until stated otherwise.

Personal data will not be disclosed to any third party, except when the communication is essential to provide the requested services, for exchange and internship purposes, academic equivalences, etc.

Processed data will be those provided by the student as well as those collected during the activity of the master programme.

In any case, students may ask for additional information about the data processing carried out by IBEI, and exercise their right of access, rectification, cancellation, limitation and opposition by writing to Institut Barcelona d’Estudis Internacionals, C. Ramon Trias Fargas, 25-27, 08005 Barcelona, or by email at comunicacio@ibei.org
