SUMMER SCHOOL

The IBEI Summer School is a programme designed for graduate students from home and abroad who have an interest in advancing their knowledge of international security, international development and global politics issues. The objective is to offer different short courses on significant topics, taught by experts of international prestige. The School will enable participants to broadly discuss - in and out the classroom - current developments in world politics in the light of core social-science and IR theories and perspectives. A social programme for networking, including visits to different Barcelona-based international organizations and NGOs and will be also available to participants.

DIRECTORS

- ▶ Prof. Martin Shaw (Institut Barcelona d'Estudis Internacionals - University of Sussex).
- ▶ Prof. Pere Vilanova (Universitat de Barcelona - Institut Barcelona d'Estudis Internacionals).

CERTIFICATION

At the conclusion of the Summer School, participants will receive a certificate for the courses attended. Optionally, students may ask for an assessment in order to be able to obtain ECTS credits, provided they are recognized by their university. Upon previous request, IBEI faculty can provide an assessment of the courses, and the grade obtained can be included into the certificate, in case students aim to transfer them into ECTS credits.

ADMISSION PROCESS

Interested candidates should apply before June 12. After this deadline, your place may not be guaranteed. Please, send your CV and an email detailing the courses you are interested to:

Carles Sanchez, csanchez@ibei.org
IBEI research coordinator

Applications will be evaluated by the Summer School directors on a rolling basis, and candidates will be informed of their decision in less than two weeks. A document will be attached to our response with payment information (using IBEI online credit card system or a transfer to IBEI bank account). Registration to the summer school will be fully confirmed after receiving payment.
