MASTER'S IN INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Dates: From September 2022 to September 2023

Duration: 12 months, full-time

Credits: 60 ECTS

Language: English

Applications: 1 July 2022

The Master's in International Development is a one-year, interdisciplinary degree intended to educate future professionals in the area of development from a global perspective. It aims to provide students with a comprehensive set of analytical skills, robust training in research methods, and a thorough understanding of key issues such as the global governance of development, economic growth and sustainability, conflict over limited resources, newly emerging powers and social movements, and ongoing trends in inequalities in living standards.

This advanced full-time programme, taught in English, is tailored for individuals considering a high level career in government, private sector or non-governmental international organisations, or those wishing to pursue an academic career.

MASTER'S IN INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The Master's degree is fully accredited and has obtained recognition of its excellence. The degree is jointly awarded by three renowned Barcelona universities: the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, the Universitat de Barcelona and the Universitat Pompeu Fabra.

The syllabus presents an innovative structure, totalling 60 ECTS credits offering a combination of core subjects and a wide range of electives catering to the students' individual interests. The Master's in International Development includes three different sets of courses and a final research project:

- ▶ Core courses (22 ECTS): Growth Models and Development Strategies, Governance, National and Global Institutions, Global Trends and Sustainability, Research Methods in International Development, Research Seminar in International Development.
- ▶ International Development elective courses: A minimum of 12 ECTS and a maximum of 28 ECTS.
- ▶ Other electives: Up to 16 ECTS in lieu of International Development elective courses.
- ▶ Final Research Project (10 ECTS).
