The Master's in Public Policy is a one-year, interdisciplinary degree intended to educate future professionals in the area of public policy-making. It aims to provide students with a comprehensive set of analytical skills, robust training in research methods, and a thorough understanding of key issues such as policy design, policy implementation, and policy evaluation at the international, European, and local levels.

This advanced full-time programme, taught in English, is tailored for individuals considering a high level career in different levels of government, in public affairs, in research divisions of business firms, and in academia.

MASTER'S IN PUBLIC POLICY

The Master's degree is fully accredited and is jointly awarded by two renowned Barcelona universities: the Universitat de Barcelona and the Universitat Pompeu Fabra.

The syllabus presents an innovative structure, totalling 60 ECTS credits offering a combination of core subjects and a wide range of electives catering to the students' individual interests. The Master's in Public Policy includes three different sets of courses and a final research project:

- ▶ Core courses (26 ECTS): Economic Analysis of Governments, Politics and Public Policy Process, Methods for Policy Analysis (quantitative), Methods for Policy Analysis (qualitative), Philosophy of Public Policy.
- ▶ Pathway core courses (6 ECTS): Students are required to select a course according to their chosen pathway.
- ▶ Elective courses (20 ECTS): Students can choose from a broad choice of electives.
- ▶ Final Research Project (8 ECTS).
