

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Teaching in research methods and statistics

The Institut Barcelona d'Estudis Internacionals (IBEI) invites applications for teaching in research methods and statistics. As part of the new 120 ECTS Research Master's in International Studies, we are looking for persons with a relevant Ph.D. degree to teach research methods and statistical courses to international students starting in February 2020. The courses are taught in English and each course consists of a total of 24 hours (12 weekly sessions of two hours each). We are interested to consider offers both for standard courses (probability, regression, etc.) and advanced courses (on different qualitative and quantitative methods including data visualization, content analysis, discourse analysis, big-data analytics, longitudinal analysis, multilevel modelling, text as data analysis, etc).

Applications must be submitted by May 3rd, 2019

Applications should include:

- A cover letter
- A CV
- A record of successful teaching experience to master students in social sciences will be highly appreciated.

The application should be saved as one PDF document and sent to:
